A WORD FROM Fr. Ryan

Last week was a big “football” week. The football season ended as the Philadelphia Eagles absolutely dismantled the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl LIX. Another great football story came to an end, though. It didn’t draw as many fans or viewers. Yet, the outcome of that story had far greater consequences than lifting the Super Bowls Lombardi Trophy. I’m speaking, of course, of the great life and death 102-year-old Virginia Halas McCaskey.

Virginia McCaskey lived a life far more enmeshed in sport than any of us could ever expect in our lives. Mrs. McCaskey also realized that the greatest battle in the life of a person doesn’t take place on a football field, a baseball diamond, or a basketball court. The greatest battle in the life of each person takes place between Heaven and hell. And the battle is for our soul. There is a great battle between good and evil for each and every soul.

We live in a world that has seemingly forgotten the First Commandment: “I, the Lord, am your God. You shall not have other gods besides me” (Exodus 20:2-3). Many more self-proclaimed Catholics watch football on Sunday than worship Jesus Christ at Mass. I can assure you Jesus Christ will get you to Heaven, the NFL will not. Athletics has become a “god.” Power or prestige have become a “god.” Money has become a “god.” Many find themselves wrapped up in things of this world. They strive for and worship all sorts of false idols. And they ignore God and the things of Heaven that will save our soul.

This is a direct contradiction to what God asks of us. And yet, those who have created their own “gods” still expect to go to Heaven. If someone has chosen to ignore God their whole life, why would they even want to spend eternity with God in Heaven? It’s a contradiction.

Heaven is very real. Hell is real, too. One of the first lessons we learn as children is that our actions have consequences. Well, the same is true on earth as it is for eternity. In a parable, Jesus told us of the consequences of those who ignore Him. They will hear God say “depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.” Clearly, not words any of us would like to hear.

Virginia McCaskey understood that the outcome of life has far greater consequences than the outcome of any game. She attended Mass daily. She prayed daily. She gave to the Church to provide for the poor. She frequented the sacrament of Confession. She chose Heaven, and she strove for it.

Heaven is a choice. So too is Hell. In ignoring God and His Commandments, many are choosing Hell. No one is forced into Hell. Many freely make the choice. I pray with all my heart that Hell is empty. But, I’m not so sure. There are far too many people that deliberately ignore or mock God and His Church on Earth. Let us pray for them to turn away from that bad choice.

We may not be popular with others when we caution against the decision to ignore God in our lives. We’re even less popular when we warn that the bad decisions of others will have dire consequences for their soul. In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us that persecution on account of our love for Him is a blessing. For our sake, and for the sake of our friends and family, let’s encourage those around us to take courage and fight the good fight. Let us take a page out of the playbook of Mrs. Virginia McCaskey — a good, selfless, and faith-filled woman — and realize that the outcome of our soul is far more important than any worldly accolade or glory.

Pope Francis tells us, “For this spiritual combat, we can count on the powerful weapons that the Lord has given us: faith-filled prayer, meditation on the word of God, the celebration of Mass, Eucharistic adoration, sacramental Reconciliation.” Let’s pray daily. Let’s read Scripture daily. Let’s go to Mass. Let’s go to Adoration. Let’s frequent Confession. Let’s win the battle. Let’s become saints!

Oremus pro invicem.

Fr. Ryan P. Brady

Bulletin Submission Guidelines

To submit items to The Sign, please email your article or announcement (HARD COPIES CANNOT BE ACCEPTED) to Marybeth Sprague at saint.christina.bulletin@gmail.com by Monday at 12:00 noon for publication in the following Sunday's bulletin. Earlier deadlines apply to some holidays. We reserve the right to edit submissions for content or space.

1. Article format

Microsoft Word or Publisher are preferred. Typing an announcement or article into the body of an email is also acceptable. Please send any accompanying images as separate email attachments at the highest resolution possible. Acceptable image formats are JPG, TIF, or PNG.

News from Cub Scout Pack 3617

Several of our Cub Scouts have recently completed their requirements to receive a religious emblem this year, demonstrating their commitment to learning about their faith and their duty to God. After much hard work and personal growth, they have earned the honor of wearing the religious emblem of their faith on their scout uniforms.

We are proud to announce the following scouts who will be receiving the Catholic Light of Christ emblem, which aims to help them develop a personal relationship with Jesus:

Danny Conwell
Liam McCormick
Aidan Paston

Additionally, the following scouts will be receiving the Catholic Parvuli Dei (Children of God) emblem, which encourages them to discover the presence of God in their daily lives within their families and parishes:

Sean Darling	Ryan Norris
Dominic Langle	Logan Robin
Brayden McCabe	George Smith
Luke McCabe	Elvis Sutton
Colin McCormick	Vytautas Sutton

Lastly, we are pleased to announce that Samuel Vranicar will be receiving the Christian Jesus & Me emblem, which introduces Jesus as the Son of God in relatable terms, allowing young children to recognize Him in their daily experiences as a storyteller, teacher, friend, and healer.

Congratulations to these young individuals!

Together we bring hope

2025 Annual Catholic Appeal

The Annual Catholic Appeal theme for 2025 is Together we bring hope. It echoes the theme that Pope Francis has given to the Holy Year Pilgrims of hope. It also resonates with our efforts of renewal in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Contributions to the Appeal enable us to bring real hope into our world, especially to those in need. We come together as the Lord's Church, and we demonstrate our love of God and our neighbor through our support of the Appeal. We foster the Church's mission to teach, to serve, and to sanctify in the name of Jesus Christ. Our support is a blessing for many.

Please consider supporting this year's Appeal. Your generous contribution will be a source of blessing for many people, for yourself, and for your loved ones.

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior in any intimate relationship whereby one partner seeks to gain or maintain control over the other. The abuse can be physical, sexual, emotional and psychological. Domestic violence can happen to anyone of any race, age, religion and gender.
