A WORD FROM Fr. Ryan

This weekend we hear the beginning of the Gospel of St. Luke. Luke explained to Theophilus that he had researched the facts of Jesus' life and then written them down. Theophilus had heard preaching about Jesus. But now, he was given an account (the Gospel) "so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received."

When we are introduced to someone, we know little about that person. We must start to converse with him or her to get to know them. Each of us has been introduced to Jesus. But, we need more than an introduction — we need a relationship with Him. In order to foster a personal relationship with Jesus it's not enough to hear about Him; we need to get to know Him personally. And this happens through prayer and reading of the Gospels. After all, God has written the Gospels as a personal invitation to each of us.

If you don't already do so, PLEASE read the Gospels. It's the only way to fortify your relationship with Jesus Christ. And trust me, there is no better way to walk through life than with Jesus Christ as your friend and companion.

Another friend that I've deepened my relationship with this past week is our parish patron, St. Christina. Last Tuesday, I rented a car and drove two hours north of Rome to Bolsena. I celebrated Mass with Fr. Milos (from Czech Republic) in the Basilica of St. Christina. After Mass, Fr. Emil (from Sri Lanka) gave me a tour of the Basilica, the catacombs in which St. Christina was originally buried, and the village of Bolsena.

Mass was celebrated in the Basilica side chapel. The chapel had a very elaborate tabernacle given to the Basilica in the late 15th Century by Cardinal Giovanni de Medici, who later became Pope Leo X. The decorative tabernacle tells us in pictures and symbols about the life and martyrdom of St. Christina.

After Mass, we took a tour of the Basilica, catacombs, and village. The Basilica itself was built on top of the underground cemetery in which St. Christina was originally buried. The current Church, built in 1078, houses the relics of St. Christina in another beautifully decorated side chapel.

We then passed to the catacombs where St. Christina was originally buried. St. Christina's father threatened her by tying her to a stone so that she'd renounce the Faith. St. Christina refused to renounce our Faith. Her father then threw her and the stone in Lake Bolsena. Her father's attempt at killing her was in vain. St. Christina was protected by God and her Guardian Angel. That very stone is at the entrance to the catacombs. Once inside, I noticed that the catacomb was very crowded. The early Christians of Bolsena wanted to be buried as close as possible to "their saint."

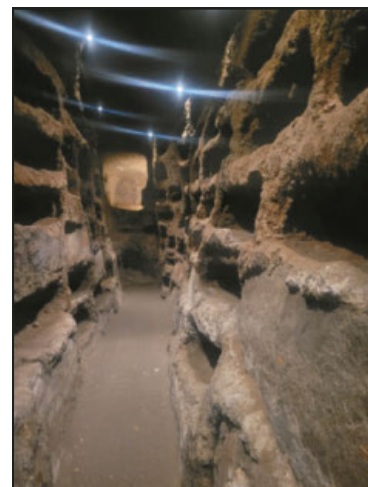

I could go on for days about the experience. In the coming weeks, I'll schedule a time to give a talk about the life of St. Christina complete with pictures and an explanation of the Basilica, catacombs and village in which St. Christina grew up.

For now, what's most important to know is this: I offered Mass for you and your intentions at the Basilica. I also spent a long time in prayer before the relics of St. Christina asking her to intercede to God for you. It was a great privilege to visit.

Lastly, the pastor of the Basilica and the mayor of Bolsena have invited our parish to make a pilgrimage to St. Christina for our 100th Anniversary! They promised to pull out all the stops: Mass, parade, concert, whatever we want! Stay tuned!

Oremus pro invicem!
