A WORD FROM Fr. Ryan

Jesus charted a course of action so that we could be claimed as children of God, so that our sins could be forgiven, and that we may be welcomed into Heaven. Jesus was born for that very reason. And how was Jesus born? What was it like? What were the circumstances? Jesus, the King of Heaven and Earth, wanted to come into the world without being noticed, without a house, without money, without a cradle, without possessions. But, Jesus did not come without a family. He was born of a holy family, the Holy Family. Jesus did not want us to be left without that Holy Family either. For that reason, Mary is our Mother, Joseph our father, Jesus our Brother and we, too, are privileged members of the Holy Family of Nazareth.

Today's Gospel tells us about a painful experience for that Holy Family. Even the Holy Family wasn't perfect! All families exist so that our joy can also be the joy of those we love. And, importantly, families exist so that our sufferings will never be ours alone. Today the family is the main target of the evil one. Satan knows, as St. John Paul II repeatedly said, "as the family goes, so goes the nation and so goes the whole world in which we live." Our families are worth it: let's fight for them to grow in holiness.

We have to ask ourselves: How can I change the world? What can I do for my neighborhood, my city, my country? What can I do for peace in the city? In the world? The answer is simple: love your family; love each of the members of your family. Love every member of your family, just as they are, taking the bitter with the sweet. Family love is powerful.

On this Feast of the Holy Family, let us give thanks to God for our family — our parish family! Our parish is an army of families. We are called to love one other and grow remarkably strong together. We are called to share our joys and sorrows. We are called to pray together. We are called to place God at the center of what we do. We are called to remind each other that holiness is our common goal.

With that being said, I have an announcement to make! Recently, I was welcomed into another family. At the request of Annette Nance-Holt, Commissioner of the Chicago Fire Department, Cardinal Cupich has allowed me to serve as Chaplain of the Chicago Fire Department. I am privileged to minister as chaplain of the CFD in conjunction with my duties as pastor of our incredible parish. I'm humbled by the confidence and faith that the Commissioner and Cardinal have placed in me. I'm very excited.

I'm also very realistic. This will be a tough task. I ask that you pray for me. I am confident that, with your prayers and God's grace, our parish family will continue to grow and flourish beyond our greatest expectations. Through our love and support of one another, we will grow remarkably strong. We will continue to be together in our joys and sorrows. Of course, we will continue to pray together. And, with your help, I'll never forget to place God at the center of what I do. With your prayers and support, I will be the priest I need to be for your family, for our parish family, and now for the Chicago Fire Department family.

Happy Feast of the Holy Family!

Fr. Ryan P. Brady

Nominated were Mike Giancarlo, President; John Mahoney, First Vice-President; John Gorman, Second Vice-President; Mark Renderman, Treasurer; Bill Sweeney, Secretary; John Owens, Sergeant-at-Arms; Jack Ullrich, Athletic Chairman, and Mo Walsh, Membership Chairman. Mike Sinde will continue as
