30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

Dear Parishioners,

In last week's bulletin, Fr. Ryan told us that he would be attending his annual retreat so he has asked me to write an article for this week's bulletin. Please remember to keep Fr. Ryan in your prayers as he spends silent time with Jesus in deep prayer reflection and spiritual renewal.

In today's Gospel, we hear of the blind man begging Jesus to open his eyes so that he could see. It makes us think how difficult it must be to be blind. But, in reality, we all have blind spots in our lives. And, I think this is one message in today's Gospel. What are your blind spots? There are blind spots in our relationships with others, blind spots in judging other people, in judging ourselves, and also in our spiritual relationship with God. In our community, we have churches, schools, businesses, and a neighborhood where people interact with one another. Most neighborhoods have similar lifestyles and families, local government, similar incomes, and it is a friendly place where we feel at home. However, there are also others in our community who don't fit into our lifestyle and are alone. How a community treats its most vulnerable members tells us a lot about that community whether these individuals have a physical or mental disability, illness, age, an emotional disturbance, or just can't take care of herself or himself. In today's Gospel, Jesus is showing his disciples not to push them away but to care for them. Isn't He also asking us to do the same? St. Christina's parish is blessed to have parishioners that visit the homebound with meals as well as those who bring them Communion. We have organizations who help those with special needs and ministries that offer support. Thank you for all those who are involved, and we all appreciate your time and dedication to provide these services to them. It's easy for us to stay in our spiritual "blindness" and pretend these people don't exist and to simply go on with our own lives. Let our parish continue to be a family to all and let all of us ask God; "Lord, open my eyes so that I may see!"

Also, today's Gospel reminds us to be persistent in our prayers. We all call on God for this or that but do we keep on persisting in those prayers? Are we sometimes confused about what God can do for us? Do we stop asking? We must trust God and believe that he hears our prayers. Often we ask God for the wrong things but He has a good plan for us and will give you the strength to get through any fights or difficulties along the way. So, remember the promises God has given us that He will never forsake us and His Kingdom and love will always be our joy and our hope. Don't give up, don't lose heart. God never does and He is listening NOW.

God's blessings,

Fr. Wayne

Adoration Chapel Adorers Needed!

During this time of Eucharistic Revival, Catholics around the country have been looking for and doing devotions and practices to enhance their experiences and lives around the Eucharist. That is being closer to Jesus and building a stronger relationship with him. They are offering him thanksgiving for what he has done and continues to do for them. A good way to do this is to be in adoration before him and a perfect place to do that is in a quiet place like our chapel. If you have been wanting to do this, now is the time to join us in our need for volunteers and become a regular adorer who is willing to commit one hour, one day a week for the Exposition hours between 1:00-4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Since our last appeal, we have lost more of these devoted people. Please think and pray about this urgent need. Your help is really and truly needed. If you have any questions or want to sign up for adoration, please contact Carol Smith at 708-217-7301, Joe Kinnerk at 773-253-8911, or Karen Mutnansky at 773-233-3709.

Please pray and seriously consider becoming a member of this ministry.

St. Christina Parish Domestic Violence Outreach

To fulfill our mission, we maintain a safe and confidential outlet to foster hope for survivors, abusers, or concerned individuals.

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior in any intimate relationship whereby one partner seeks to gain or maintain control over the other. The abuse can be physical, sexual, emotional and psychological. Domestic violence can happen to anyone of any race, age, religion and gender. Domestic violence affects people of all socioeconomic backgrounds or educational levels.

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

We Remember

As we approach November 2nd, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, our priests, Fr. Ryan Brady, Fr. Wayne Svida, Fr. Dennis Ziomek, and Fr. John Sullivan, along with our St. Christina Parish family, offer our continued prayers and support to all who have experienced a recent loss.

We Celebrate

On Saturday, November 2nd during the 7:00 p.m. Mass in church, we will have a memorial of our faithful departed. Our memorial service will take place immediately following the homily of the Mass. The names of parishioners and those buried from St. Christina Church since last October 26, 2023 will be read.

Upon your arrival for Mass on All Souls Day you will receive a candle having the name of your deceased loved one. You and your family will then bring the candle up into the sanctuary and place it on the table which has been prepared on the Blessed Mother side, and there it will be lit. It will be important to be in church before 7:00 p.m. to allow time for family members to bring their candle up into the sanctuary before Mass starts.

If you would also like to have a photo of your loved one placed in the sacred space during November, you may bring the photo when you come for a weekend Mass or a morning Mass and place it in one of the marked containers in the vestibule of the church. (Containers will be available starting October 19th). Photos may also be dropped off at the rectory. Please be sure to put the name on the back, along with your phone number. If you bring a picture with you on November 2nd, simply bring it up to the ladies in front. You are then welcome to leave the picture and candle in church until November 24th, or you may take them with you after Mass on November 2nd. How fitting to then have the candle in a place of honor for your Thanksgiving Day celebration, on the dining room table or in an appropriate setting.

We Believe

We invite you, your family, and anyone who wishes, to please join us in praying for and remembering our deceased loved ones. While we no longer experience their physical presence with us, our faith tells us we will one day be reunited. Life has changed for them, for their earthly journey is completed and they are at peace. In communion with them, we journey forward in faith. As Saint Pope John the XXIII used to say about the dead: they are not dead; they have gone home; they are around the corner; and they are waiting for us.

For any questions, clarifications, or concerns, please contact Deacon John F. Mutnansky at the rectory: 773-779-7181.
